

A Christmas Present That Will Please All the Family.

Some members of the family want the Family Christmas Present to be a Regina Music Box. It is conceded the best music box made. It gives the sweetest instrumental music in the world. Some want a Christmas Talking Machine. It will give all the fine selections from the Operas, all the new songs, and the old home songs, and all the fun-making speeches.

It Cost Too Much to Buy Both. Not If You Get Them Both in One.

Haven't you heard about it?

Then come into any one of our Regina Music Stores and see the REGINAPHONE.

It is the Best Music Box and the Best Talking Machine—Both in One—in the same case, which is no larger than either would require—operated by the same motor, which is the longest running music motor ever constructed. Children may operate it with no fear of injuring it. There is nothing to get out of order. We guarantee it against defect in material and workmanship.

And You Get the Double Instrument (The two instruments) for just a trifle more than you would pay for either.

And then, the easy payments, with no interest charged on deferred payments.

The name Regina is a guarantee of excellence. Anything you buy in a Regina Store you can depend upon. When you call ask to see,

Reginaphones

BOY MURDERER SHOTS CAPTOR

HAD KILLED AND ROBBED MAN WHO BEFRIENDED HIM.

Manager of St. George's Lithuanian Association in Newark Shot Dead in Club's Rooms—Policeman. After a chase, Overpowered and Disarmed Slayer.

John Lukaczewicz, 17 years old, of 85 Union street, Newark, shot and instantly killed Michael Muskunas, 32 years old, manager of St. George's Lithuanian Association, in the rooms of that organization at 180-182 New York avenue, Newark, early yesterday morning. Lukaczewicz turned his weapon upon Anthonio Bugis of 14 Walnut street, who tried to hold him, and fired twice. One bullet pierced both wings of Bugis's collar and the other struck the first finger of his right hand.

That the motive of Lukaczewicz's deed was robbery was shown by the fact that after he had killed Muskunas and made Bugis flee he rifled the cash register and the pockets of his victim, getting in all $38.70.

Lukaczewicz tried to escape, but was captured after a short chase by Roundsman James McNeill of the Third precinct, who was attracted by the shooting. He tried to pull his gun on McNeill, but the latter wrenched the weapon from his hand. The prisoner was arraigned later before Acting Judge Vulliamy and committed to jail without bail. Bugis was ordered held under $300 bail as a witness, which he furnished, and six other witnesses arrested in connection with the murder were paroled to appear when wanted.

Lukaczewicz went to the clubhouse early Friday evening and played pool and bowled several games with Muskunas, who, it is said, took a great interest in the boy and befriended him. About 2 o'clock Muskunas started to close up and Bugis began cleaning off the bar. Lukaczewicz went to the table on which was his overcoat never taking his eye off the movements of the other two. Suddenly he whipped out a .22 caliber revolver and, taking a few steps forward, fired. The first bullet hit Muskunas back of the right ear.

Muskunas fell to the floor and Bugis went for the assassin. Lukaczewicz fired twice at him and drove him out of the room, by way of a side door leading upstairs. The murderer then committed the robbery and ran out.

Pursuing a revolver Bugis returned to the scene of the murder, only to find Lukaczewicz missing. He ran to the street in time to see the boy running a short distance away. Raising his revolver, he fired two shots. Roundsman McNeill turned in on New York avenue from Pacific street at the time, and Lukaczewicz was running he gave pursuit. McNeill overtook him at Jefferson street, two blocks away and throwing his arms around the fugitive pinned him against the side of a house and took his revolver. The cop then marched his man back to where the murder occurred and Bugis identified Lukaczewicz as the shooter.

While McNeill was waiting for the patrol wagon to take Lukaczewicz to the station a crowd gathered, and upon hearing that Muskunas was dead there were threats to lynch the slayer. McNeill drew his revolver and he would shoot the first man who laid a hand upon him. Muskunas was unmarried and lived with his brother at 45 New York street. Lukaczewicz boarded at 55 Union street. He has lived in this country about three years and was employed in a leather shop.

BINGHAM MAKES PROMOTIONS.
Barnett, Who Captured Burglar Gentleman George, Now a Captain.
Police Commissioner Bingham yesterday promoted Lieut. Edward C. Barnett of the Detective Bureau to the grade of captain. He also made Sergt. Edward Dobson, who was on Deputy Commissioner Bugher's staff, a lieutenant. Barnett was a detective sergeant before the recent police bill became a law.

With the promotion of Barnett the last vacant captaincy in the force. This vacancy was unfilled for several weeks for the reason that Commissioner Bingham was undecided as to the proper man for the place. Barnett headed the list of eligibles, but had several close competitors. It is thought he finally landed the place because of his capture several years ago of Harry Brooks, a notorious burglar who was known as Gentleman George.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH BY CAB.
Electric Vehicle Whizzed Close to Street Sweeper—Driver Held in $1,000 Bail.
An electric cab of the New York Transportation Company whizzed by so close yesterday to John Leffer, a street sweeper, in Park avenue near Thirty-seventh street that the fright caused his death. The ambulance surgeon said the man probably had a weak heart. Charles Ahern, the operator of the cab, was arrested. He was held in $1,000 bail by Coroner Dooley.

NOT OPEN EVENINGS

An Extraordinary Holiday Season Ends In Extraordinary Fashion: Two-day Clearance Sales Characterized By Record Reductions.

This year, more than ever, has this fact been impressive: Making the Most of Holiday Gift Expenditures Is Merely a Matter of Buying Gifts at Macy's.

With two days for clearing stocks of holiday goods and laying foundations for January Sales, we adopt the logical clearance measures—Reductions.

Assortments in most cases are too varied for details. Unless we have sufficient quantities, we do not advertise details of sale stocks. So, as usual, under such circumstances, you will find many of the best values in this two-day clearance sale placarded with our regulation "Not Advertised" cards.

Prompt deliveries are promised—even, by wagon—up to Christmas morning, and the regular delivery force augmented by a force of 100 special messengers.

Women's Furs: Entire Stock Subjected To Decisive Price Reductions

THESE reductions are all the more noteworthy because a great many of the Furs concerned are from a special-purchase stock involved in a recent sale. The sale prices THEN were a full third less than usual.

Now BIG REDUCTIONS taking in, as well, splendid Coats, Neck-pieces and Muffs from our regular stocks.

We have no record of a similar underpricing of Furs at such a time—right on the eve of the Christmas holidays.

If the gift is to be one of Furs this is the opportunity to purchase it MOST advantageously.

The selection embraces:—RUSSIAN AND HUDSON BAY SABLE SETS, MINK SCARFS, and MUFFS, SETS AND SEPARATE PIECES in ermine, lynx, natural baum marten, fox and cross fox; MINK COATS, FUR-LINED COATS, including both imported and domestic models; PONY COATS; short, medium and full-length CARACUL COATS, and Eton or jacket model COATS in Persian paw.

Sparkling Cut Glass, 20% to 40% Less Than MACY'S Usual Low Prices

MACY prices for Cut Glass are generally conceded to be the lowest quoted for such ware. We operate our own Cut Glass factory—a facility no other retail store enjoys.

That facility makes our position a commanding one—gives us UNQUESTIONED SUPREMACY in the distribution of Cut Glass.

A few days ago we announced—in the nick of time for holiday gift buyers—a sale of $10,000 worth of this rich ware.

We have added to the balance of that stock and can announce a CONTINUATION OF THIS VERY REMARKABLE SALE

Apart from the basement display, Main Floor Bargain Tables are monopolized by Cut Glass from this sale stock. It is a very widely varied stock, embracing single pieces—say an Olive Dish—at 99¢, up to a superb Punch Set at $249.87. Particularly interesting are

Berry or Salad Bowls, Flower Vases, Celery Trays,

Water Pitchers, Decanters, Fern Dishes, Sugar

and Creams, Ice Cream Trays, and Nappies.

Typical reductions in some of the finer specimens—merely to indicate what prices are in store:—
